DVAM: Inspiring ACTION with community meetings

Domestic Violence Action Month (DVAM) is a great time to engage your community in new ways. We hope that you find these tools useful to inspire ACTION to prevent domestic violence.

Online at wscadv.org, you can find:

- Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram friendly pics
- A one-pager on using Fatality Review statistics for DVAM
- How's Your Relationship? Conversation Cards
- Love Like This posters and post cards

And watch out for our blog posts on DVAM all month at canyourelate.org!

Here are some ideas for using the materials.

Host a community meeting with parents and teens Converted through the converted through the community of the

Provide How's Your Relationship? Conversation Cards for participants and work through them together Hold a breakup

Provide Love Like This materials and focus on the Breaking Up post of Love Like This

Review the best approaches and stumbling blocks, and then take the opportunity to practice!

Hang a poster

Replace your old posters with the positive and eyecatching Love Like This series!

And remember these tips for making your community meeting work:

- Provide food!
- Be clear you want participants to walk away with a step they're going to take.
- Need help? Check out the Community Toolbox to help you with assessing needs, increasing participation, and troubleshooting.

