

Member Program

Who qualifies to be a member program?

- Private, non-profit organizations and tribal agencies that focus on providing services to victims and survivors of domestic violence and their children.
- Private non-profit organizations and tribal agencies that have a program component that focuses on providing services to victims and survivors of domestic violence and their children.
- Programs that receive public money and that provide shelter and/or community-based advocacy for victims and survivors of domestic violence and their children.

Responsibilities

- Payment of annual dues.
- Agree with and adhere to the WSCADV Principles of Unity.
  - The Washington State Coalition Against Domestic Violence affirms the right of each person to live without fear or the threat of violence. We oppose the use of violence as a means of control. We recognize that oppression in the form of racism, sexism, classism, anti-Semitism, ageism, imperialism, heterosexism, and oppression of persons with disabilities, creates a climate of supremacy and ownership which enables domestic and sexual violence. We recognize that religious beliefs and practices are matters of personal conscience and individual choice. Therefore, no member shall promote or discourage a particular religious belief in the course of her/his work. We believe that all women have the right to autonomy and self-determination regarding all sexual and reproductive matters, lifestyles, finances, education and employment. We encourage the leadership of women in making policy and program decisions.
- Participate in the selection of the Board of Directors.
- Participate in decision making at WSCADV annual meeting.

Price Structure

Member Program dues are determined based on the size of the organization's budget.

- $1 - $250,000 -- $500
- $250,001 - $500,000 -- $800
- $500,001 - $750,000 -- $1,100
- $750,001 – $1,000,000 -- $1,500
- $1,000,001 - $1,500,000 -- $2,000
- $1,500,001 – 2,000,000 -- $2,500
- $2,000,001+ -- $3,000

Benefits

- Reduced registration fees for trainings and annual conference, plus opportunities for free registration slots and scholarships when available.
- Monthly communications from the Coalition.
- Opportunity to participate in WSCADV trainings, meetings, and events.
- Access to specialized training and technical assistance.
- Reduced prices on curricula and other print materials, plus opportunities for free materials when available.
- Access to resource materials.
- Opportunity to provide input into the WSCADV programming direction.
- Opportunity to hold positions on the Board of Directors.

Tribal programs and other government-operated domestic violence programs, please contact us at wscadv@wscadv.org or (206) 389-2515 ext. 215 so we can assist you with joining.

WSCADV, 1511 Third Avenue, Suite 433 Seattle WA, 98101
Phone: (206) 389-2515 ext. 215 Email: wscadv@wscadv.org

Associate Member

Who qualifies to be an associate member?

- Organizational & Individual associates shall consist of organizations or individuals who wish to support the Coalition.

Responsibilities

- Payment of annual dues.
- Agree with and adhere to the WSCADV Principles of Unity:
  - The Washington State Coalition Against Domestic Violence affirms the right of each person to live without fear or the threat of violence. We oppose the use of violence as a means of control. We recognize that oppression in the form of racism, sexism, classism, anti-Semitism, ageism, imperialism, heterosexism, and oppression of persons with disabilities, creates a climate of supremacy and ownership which enables domestic and sexual violence. We recognize that religious beliefs and practices are matters of personal conscience and individual choice. Therefore, no member shall promote or discourage a particular religious belief in the course of her/his work. We believe that all women have the right to autonomy and self-determination regarding all sexual and reproductive matters, lifestyles, finances, education and employment. We encourage the leadership of women in making policy and program decisions.

Price Structure

- Individual - $100
- Organizations - $250

Benefits

- Reduced registration fees for trainings and annual conference (Associate members are not eligible for free registration slots and scholarships).
- Monthly communications.
- Opportunity to participate in WSADV trainings, meetings, and events.
- Reduced prices on curricula and other print materials (Associate members do not receive free educational resources).
- Access to resource materials.
- Opportunity to provide input into WSCADV programming direction.
- Opportunity to hold positions on the Board of Directors.

Tribal programs and other government-operated domestic violence programs, please contact us at wscadv@wscadv.org or (206) 389-2515 ext. 215 so we can assist you with joining.

WSCADV, 1511 Third Avenue, Suite 433 Seattle WA, 98101
Phone: (206) 389-2515 ext. 215 Email: wscadv@wscadv.org